VOLUME FOURTH.

SPRINGFIELD, MASS.:
CLARK W. BRYAN & COMPANY, PRINTERS.
1876.

PREFACE.

THE Fourth Volume of the AMERICAN DEVON HERD BOOK, published in the Spring of 1876, will be sent by mail, post-paid, on the receipt of $3.50. The first and second volumes $2.50 each, or $4.50 bound together; third volume, $3.00.

Davy's first and second volumes of English Devon Herd Book—published in 1851 and 1853, and re-published in this country in 1855 by Col. L. G. Morris and Sanford Howard,—bound in one, $4.50. The foundation of all the Devon Herds in America are recorded in these volumes; and most of the present herds are traced back to animals found recorded in Davy's first and second volumes.

The fifth volume of the American Devon Herd Book will be published in 1878, or as soon as a sufficient number of pedigrees are received to warrant it; one thousand at least. All authentic pedigrees, written out in the form of the fourth volume, and sent to the editor at any time, with the fee of one dollar for each pedigree sent, will be preserved for record in the fifth volume.

Be particular to state the sex, the sire and dam, and their herd-book number; when calved, the name of the owner and breeder, and their residence—town, county and State. Also, the prizes they have won, the prices for which they have been sold, the products obtained from them, and their age when butchered, etc. No notice will be taken of pedigrees without the fee, or of letters of inquiry without a stamp.

The Editor can also furnish parties with Devons of various ages, from his own herd, or obtain them from other breeders.

The fourth volume contains the pedigrees of 396 bulls and 809 cows from 263 breeders and owners in the United States and Canadas. Total number of pedigrees in fourth volume 1,205, including pedigrees entered with half numbers after the work was in press. The numbers are continued from the third volume, and amount to 1,101 bulls and 2,125 cows.

DEVON CATTLE.

THE following history of the Devon Cattle in America has been furnished by the Hon. James Buckingham, Zanesville, O., for the preface of the fourth volume : with corrections and additions by the Editor. See explanation of Herd Book numbers on page 15 of this volume.

THEIR HISTORY IN AMERICA.

THIS race of cattle has been bred in England for a couple of centuries, and greatly admired for their many good qualities. They were imported from that country into the United States at the beginning of the present century ; and are already increasing in numbers without any effort being made by the breeders to introduce them. For a large portion of our country they are better adapted than any other, being just the cattle for the hills. They are not excelled for their hardiness by any other breed ; thriving where other cattle would starve, and yet showing care and good feed as much as any. For the yoke they have long been considered excellent ; being docile, strong and quick in their motions. The quality of their beef is well attested by the price it brings at Smithfield market in London. When bred for milk, they equal any ; as numerous cases of their producing from fourteen to nineteen pounds of butter per week will show.

They vary in color from a light to a dark red, with flesh-colored muzzles, with same around the eyes, the tip of the tail white, and sometimes their udders are white, but it should be nowhere else. Some breeders seem to prefer the light red color, while others prefer the dark red, but it is best to avoid either extreme. They are called by many the "little Devons," but it is not at all uncommon to find cows weighing from thirteen to fifteen hundred pounds, the bulls from fifteen to twenty-one hundred pounds, and thesteers of ten forty-five hundred per yoke. Duke of Hampden 832, at 36 months old weighed 2,030 pounds.

As for their milk and butter qualities, Mr. Wainwright, of Rhinebeck, N. Y., says he made 14 lbs. of butter per week from Helena 1712 (774 E) ; F. P. Holcomb, of New Castle, Del., 19 1-2 a week from Lady ; Hon. H. Capron, formerly of Robin's Nest, Ill., 21 lbs. in nine days, from Flora 2d, 120 ; C. P. Holcomb, New Castle, Del., in the summer of 1843, in twelve weeks, made from one cow 174 3-4 lbs. of butter, or an average of 14 lbs. and 9 oz. per week ; during one week she made 19 lbs., and in three days 9 1-2 lbs. W. L. Cowles, Farmington, Conn., 16 1-2 lbs. in ten days. J. Buckingham, Duncan's Falls, O., in three months, summer of 1856, from four cows, an average of 44 1-2 lbs. per week, besides using the cream and milk in a family of seven persons. L. G. Collins, Newark, Mo., from the dam of Red Jacket, 98, 16 3-4 lbs. per week. Mr. Coleman, 21 lbs. per week for several weeks in succession. Mr. Hurlbut, of Connecticut, from Beauty (523 E), averaged 16 lbs. per week during June, 1850, when she was 16 years old. This is but a small portion of those on my list as famous for butter.

It is supposed that many Devons were brought over by the early emigrants with them into New England; if not, where did the red cattle come from that our ancestors delight in telling about. History says, "That Messrs. Winthrop and Davenport, about the year 1800, imported Devons into Plymouth, Mass."

In 1805, General Eaton imported some into Otsego county, N. Y.; of them and their descendants we find nothing more in print, though Mr. J. M. Blakeslee claims their descendants were scattered through western Connecticut. It is probable that they were pure bred, or why should they go to the trouble and expense of selecting, purchasing and bringing them across the ocean? The first pure-bred Devons that we have any certain knowledge of in this country, are one bull and six heifers presented by Mr. Coke (afterward Earl of Leicester), of Holkham, England, to Mr. Robert Patterson, a celebrated merchant of the city of Baltimore. Of their arrival in this country I find the following notice in the fourth volume of the old American Farmer, page 29, which is before me, and reads as follows: "June 10, 1817, the brig Margaretta, Captain Gardner, arrived at Baltimore, from London, England, with six beautiful young cows and one bull, of the Devonshire breed, for Mr. Patterson and Mr. Caton, the whole being a present from Mr. Coke."

American Farmer, volume 3, page 112: "The bull is one year old, and the six heifers of two years old each.

Robert Patterson gave these six heifers to his father, William Patterson, and his father-in-law, Richard Caton—three to each of them, and the bull, Taurus (alias Denny) 1071 (320 E) to Robert Caton; William Patterson having the use of him for one year. An accident has since rendered him useless (1821). William Patterson, from his part of the stock has furnished three bulls, one to the State of Connecticut, one to the State of New York, and one to a public-spirited landholder of this town."

The six heifers were named as follows: Europa, Fancy or Fanny, Flora, Longhorn, Nancy, and Strawberry.

Europa, March 25, 1825, produced the heifer calf, Dorcas, by Diomedes; Dorcas sold to E. F. Noel, Essex County, Virginia. (American Farmer, volume 10, page 144.)

FANNY OR FANCY PRODUCED,

1818, bull, imported Oliver, by Mr. Coke's Patriot.

1819, heifer, Fancy, by imported Taurus.

1820, heifer, Fancy, by imported Taurus.

182—, heifer, Annette, by imported Oliver.

After the injury to Taurus, Patterson seems to have used imported Oliver. This heifer, Fancy, in the fall of 1819, was sold to S. & L. Hurlbut, Winchester, Conn., and from her descended his family of Fancys and Beautys. From Annette, L. F. Allen's family of Ariadnes descended.

FLORA PRODUCED,

1820, bull calf, Sultan, by imported Taurus 1071 (320 E).

182—, heifer calf, Diana, by Pompey.

Sultan was sold November, 1822, to J. D. Witherspoon, of South Carolina. Diana, bred to Diomede, calved May 2, 1825, the bull calf Ruler; Dorcas and Ruler both sold to E. F. Noel of Virginia. (See American Farmer, volume 10, page 144.)

Longhorn, March, 1819, produced Holkham 910 (215 E); sold fall of 1819 to S. & L. Hurlbut, Winchester, Conn., and used by them till 1834, when they sold him into New York State, and he died there in 1839. (See American Farmer for 1831, page 67. See Albany Cultivator for 1845, page 320.)

NANCY PRODUCED,

1819, heifer calf, Susan, by imported Taurus; L. F. Allen's family of Sapphos descended from Susan.

STRAWBERRY PRODUCED,

1819, heifer calf, Strawberry, by imported Taurus; sold, fall of 1820, to S. & L. Hurlbut, and from her his family of Strawberrys descended.

The yearling bull sent over at this time, Mr. Coke had purchased from his tenant, Mr. Denny (in some old pedigrees he is called Denny), and named him Taurus 1071 (320 E). Calved in 1816, he is among the oldest Devons named in the English Herd-Book.

Mr. George Patterson, the son of W. Patterson, and late of Sykesville, Md., says "that in 1820 he saw the dam of Taurus 1071 (320 E) on the farm of Mr. Denny; she then made 13 lbs. of butter per week." In 1835, Mr. George Patterson, in writing to Mr. Coke, says: "I became possessed of the Devon cattle descended from the bull Taurus 1071 (320 E) and the three heifers mentioned, and the calves of the two heifers which were in calf before leaving England"—and that he wished a Devon bull to cross on them. Mr. Coke, therefore, in 1836, sent over Anchises 717 (140 E) and the heifer Effie from the herd of John Bloomfield, Norfolk, England. In 1842, Mr. Patterson sold Anchises to H. N. Washbon, of Morris, N. Y. In 1841, he imported Eclipse 841 (191 E), from John Bloomfield, and in 1846 sold him to Hon. Horace Capron. In 1846, he imported Herod 905 (214 E), from the same party, and in 1853 sold him to Mr. L. G. Collins, then of Linden, Ind., now of Newark, Mo., who slaughtered him in 1857. In 1852, he imported Norfolk 998 (266 E) and the cow Jenny Lind, both from Mr. Bloomfield, and Priam 87, in his dam Jenny Lind. In 1856, he imported Chatsworth 182, and the cow Bird. Chatsworth he sold in 1860, to J. H. McHenry of Pikesville, Md., who sold him in 1863 to Daniel Steinmetz, Shoeneck, Lancaster county, Pa., and he was butchered in 1869. In 1860, he imported Dick Taylor 486, alias Logan, from Mr. John Bloomfield, Norfolk, England. In 1868, he imported President 639, from the herd of James Davy. He was sold to Mr. S. T. C. Brown, of Sykesville, Md., March, 1870, after Mr. George Patterson's death. Effie, imported by Mr. Patterson in 1836, was the dam of cow by Anchises 717 (140 E), Janett by Waverly, he by Anchises (140 E) [see Victoria 343], Victoria by Eclipse 841 (191 E), and Baltimore (1160 H) by Eclipse 841 (191 E); she was sold in 1843 to Mr. Samuel Allen, of Black Rock, N. Y., with a bull calf by her side by Eclipse 841 (191 E). [See Albany Cultivator for 1843, page 105.] He sold her a few years afterwards to Mr. R. S. Colt, of Paterson, N. J. Jenny Lind, imported by Mr. Patterson in 1852, was in calf by Sultan (122 E) and produced in 1853 the bull Priam 87; sold to L. G. Collins, of Linden, Ind. She was also the dam of Andrew Jackson 408, Paris (522 H) and Buxom (1195 H). In 1857, he gave Jenny Lind to a man in Baltimore, who gave her to Mr. James E. Tyson, of Baltimore, who sent her to his farm down at the Neck. Bird, imported in 1856, was the dam of Sterling Price 686, by Andrew Jackson 408.

Most of the Devons of this country are descended from the different Patterson importations, and it is unfortunate for the breeders of this stock that he did not keep a regular breeder's record, and enter all his stock in the Herd-Book. As he had no other breeding stock on his farm but Devons, he thought it useless to enter them for record: "He was not in the habit of naming cows bred by himself, and any that have been recorded by persons purchasing cattle from him have been named by them and recorded with his consent."

His only mark for his different strains was his private mark, regardless of name. He never retained any heifer out of his imported cows to breed from, but sold them all.

The Hon. Rufus King, of Jamaica, Long Island, in 1818 imported from the herd of Mr. Coke, of Holkam, England, two heifers—one called Duchess, the name of the other unknown. One of these heifers was in calf, and produced the bull Holkam 909 (450 H). These were bred together, and fell into the hands of his son, the late James C. King, an eminent banker in New York city. In 1835, Mr. Lewis F. Allen, of Black Rock, N. Y., purchased of him the bull King and the cows Lady Devon and Duchess; and from these two cows descended the families of Fairies, Hortensias and Junos of Mr. Allen.

January 2, 1825, Henry Thompson of Baltimore imported other Devons. American Farmer for 1825 (page 332) has the following account of them. "These cattle were purchased by John Atherstone at Mr. Childs's public sale of North Devon Cattle on September 27, 1824, at Bently, and selected as the best of his stock. They arrived at Baltimore, on Sunday last, in the ship Franklin, Captain Graham, from Liverpool, and consist of Garrick 864, a year old bull, out of Fillpail by Prize "(108 E)".

Flora eighteen months old out of Stately by Prize "(108 E)," and the other heifer was shipped, but died at sea.

"FLORA PRODUCED,

In 1827, the bull Bolivar 755, by imported Garrick 864." (See American Farmer for 1828, page 249.)

Bolivar 755, was used by W. Patterson in his herd.

John Cowlin, of Truxton, New York, in the spring of 1835, imported from Samford Peverel, Devonshire, England, three head of Devons.

One bull, which was sold and taken to the State of Missouri by a Mr. John Houghton.

One cow, which died two years after her arrival, leaving one heifer by the Houghton bull, which was sold to a man in Madison County, N. Y. This imported cow was called Emily, and the heifer Fancy, and she is the dam of Rose 314.

The last of the three was a two-year-old heifer from the herd of Francis Quartly, Exeter, England. This heifer was bred to the bull Houghton on the ship, and had a bull calf (the same bought by Mr. Titus). She was then, in 1838, having missed previously to Houghton, bred to her own son, and was in calf by him when sold to Mr. Titus, and produced a heifer calf in 1839.

In 1846, it seems this imported cow was owned by H. N. Washbon, of Morris, New York, and he called her Frozenfoot. She had a bull calf at the New York State Fair, that year, at Auburn (1846), which a Mr. James Taylor, of ————, says he bought for a gentleman with whom he lived. This cow Frozenfoot was the dam of Bishop 11, and a heifer, also by Baltimore 724 (364 II). See Cherry (1197 II).

Mr. Ambros Stevens, in a letter to R. H. Van Rensselaer, of July 27, 1854, says: In 1838, Richard Radley, of Stafford, Genesee County, New York, selected three calves from the herd of James Davy, Devonshire, England, for Miles Vernon, who had a mill and farm at Roanoke, Genesee county, New York, and imported them in 1839. One bull—Imported Dibble 818 (176 E) (in old manuscript pedigrees called Lord Western). In May, 1842, he was sold to Judge Edgar C. Dibble, of Batavia, New York, who kept him until 1847, when he was sold to go to Ohio. In 1852, he was bought and brought back to Orleans County, New York, and Mr. E. P. Beck, of Wyoming, used him the season of 1852. It is said he got no calves after coming back from Ohio, but this is an entire mistake.

The other two were heifers. In the spring of 1840 one of them died, never having produced a calf. The other heifer produced one calf only, and that was a heifer, Davy, in the spring of 1842, and then died the same fall.

In May, 1842, Judge Edgar C. Dibble, of Batavia, bought this heifer calf, with the bull above mentioned, and kept her and bred her until 1851, in the fall, when she was sold to Mr. Muir, and by him, in 185—, to L. C. Sweet, of Smyrna, New York.

PRODUCE OF DAVY.

1845. B. C. by Imported Dibble 818 (176 E), alias Lord Western.

1846. B. C. by Imported Dibble 818 (176 E), alias Lord Western.

- 1847. B. C. by Imported Dibble 818 (176 E) alias Lord Western.
- 1848. B. C. by Imported Dibble 818 (176 E) alias Lord Western.
- 1849. H. C. by son of Dibble 818 (176 E) alias Lord Western out of Davy.
- 1850. B. C. by son of Dibble 818 (176 E) alias Lord Western.
- 1851. B. C. by son of Dibble 818 (176 E) alias Lord Western.
- 1852. H. C. by Imported Candy 776 (153 E), sold to R. H. Van Rensselaer.

The H. C. of 1849 died in 1853, barren, never having had a calf.

Imported Dibble 818 (176 E) was calved fall of 1838, bred by James Davy, by Oxford (89 E), dam by Forrester (46 E), 2d dam and 3d dam bred by the late William Davy.

The two heifers were by Oxford (89 E); dam and grand dam bred by the late W. Davy.

Francis Rotch, of Butternuts (now of Morris), Otsego County, New York, in 1839, imported two heifers from the herd of the Duke of Norfolk. (Albany Cultivator, 1839, page 199.)

One of these, sold in 1840 to Lewis Franchot, of Otsego County, New York, proving barren, was butchered, and found to have been spayed before leaving England.

The other one was in 1840 sold to H. N. Washbon, of Morris, New York (and we may as well call her the Rotch cow). When imported she was in calf to one of the Duke of Norfolk's bulls, and produced the bull Sweepstakes. It seems that Sweepstakes covered his own dam, and the produce was Leonora (1371 H.), and she must have been bred by H. N. Washbon, as he bought the Rotch cow in 1840. (Albany Cultivator 1840, page 180.)

THE ROTCH COW PRODUCED :

1839. Sweepstakes, by one of the Duke of Norfolk's bulls.

1842. Leonora (1371 H) by Sweepstakes.

1843. Fancy 103, by imported Anchises 717 (140 E).

Mr. Thomas Motley, of Jamaica Plains, Mass., President of the Massachusetts Society for the Promotion of Agriculture, furnishes the following from the records of the Society: List of Devon Cattle purchased by Mr. A. Becket from the Earl of Leicester's herd, Norfolk, England, for the Massachusetts Society for the Promotion of Agriculture, August, 1845; arrived at Boston in ship Chaos, September 28, 1845; with some additions from the Herd Books, and Herd Book numbers.

Palfrey, out of Honeymoon by Derby (23 E), February 16, 1846. Died September, 1847.

Marmion (483 H), out of Honeymoon by Bloomfield, May 23, 1848.

Bull calf, out of Honeymoon by Bloomfield, October 27, 1849.

W. H. Lock, formerly of Canada, but now of Philo, Champaign County, Ill., in 1847, imported the bulls—

Frank Merson, 516, from the herd of R. Merson, Brinsworthy, England.

William Leyden, from the herd of W. Leyden, North Molton, England.

Sir Luton (314Ca), by Lewes (226 E).

Cows—Curly—out of Curly (93 E)—from the herd of F. Quartly, South Molton, England.

Cherry, from the herd of F. Quartly, South Molton, England.

Flower, from the herd of C. Boucher, Somerset, England.

Maria Davy, from the herd of J. T. Davy, South Molton, England.

Lilly, from the herd of C. Boucher.

W. P. & C. S. Wainwright, Rhinebeck, New York, in 1848 made their first importations: the bull—

Megunticook 976 (251 E), from the herd of W. Baker, Byshopsnympton.

Cows—Nonpareil (924 E), from the herd of J. Halse, South Molton.

Helena 1712 (774 E), from the herd of J. Quartly, South Molton.

Meadow Lilly 1901 (883 E), in her dam Helena 1712 (774 E).

Moss Rose, (904 E), in her dam Nonpareil (924 E).

In the fall of 1861, the bull—

May Boy 974 (71 E), from the herd of George Turner.

In September, 1853, the heifers—

Genevra (747 E), from the herd of William Baker.

Kate Kearney (861 E), the herd of William Baker.

Bull Massaoit (247 E), in his dam Ginevra (747 E).

In the fall of 1855, the bull—

Omer Pasha 901 (473 E), from the herd of George Turner.

Heifer Daisy (640 E), from the herd of J. Quartly.

Bull Hiawatha 907 (432 E), in his dam Daisy (640 E).

Col. L. G. Morris, of Fordham, New York, in 1850 and 1852, made the following importations : (Albany Cultivator 1853, pages 37 and 304.)

Bulls—Frank Quartly 860 (205 E), from the herd of John Quartly.

President (97 E), from the herd of Edwin Maunder.

Cows—Edith (155 E), in 1850, herd of Earl Leicester.

Virtue (469 E), in 1850, herd of Earl Leicester.

Birthday (38 E), in 1852, herd of J. A. Thomas.

Princess (380 E), in 1852, herd of James Quartly.

Birthday (537 E), in her dam Birthday (38 E).

Princess (986 E), in her dam Princess (380 E).

A. Stevens, of Geneseo, N. Y., in 1850 and 1852, imported—

Bulls—Albert 715 (2 E), from the herd of R. Merson.

Candy 776 (153 E), from the herd of J. Davy.

Comet 22, in his dam Curly (610 E).

Quartly (284 E) (twin), in his dam Lovely (854 E).

Washington (130 E), from the herd of James Quartly.

Cows—Curly (610 E), from the herd of R. Merson.

Lovely (854 E), from the herd of R. Merson.

Daisy (653 E), from the herd of James Davy.

Fancy (705 E), from the herd of James Davy.

Fine Horns (725 E), from the herd of James Davy.

Duchess (667 E), from the herd of G. Shapland.

Fairy 97 (696 E), from the herd of G. Shapland.

Mary (873 E), from the herd of G. Shapland.

Delight (655 E), in her dam Daisy (653 E).

Lovely (855 E) (twin), in her dam Lovely (854 E).

R. C. Gapper, of Toronto, Canada, about 1840, imported the bulls—

Billy, from the herd of James Davy.

Duke of Devon (405 H), from same herd in 1850.

Cows—Beauty, Rose, Sophia, Duchess and Cherry (63 E), from same herd.

D. W. Catlin, of New York city, in 1851, imported from the herd of George Turner, for his brother, Abijah Catlin, and C. N. Case, of Harwinton, Conn., the bull Reubens (116 E)—“a splendid animal, which died young from over-feeding”—the cow Pedley 283, Lola 213, in her dam Pedley 283, bred by Mr. Melruish, of Worlington, England, and a heifer. The bull was owned by Messrs. Catlin and Case jointly, the cow Pedley 283, by A. Catlin, and the heifer by C. N. Case. She failing to breed, he sold her, and she afterwards bred several calves, but I fail to find her or them in the Herd-Book.

R. H. Van Rensselaer, of Morris, New York, 1850, imported the cows—

Lady Bird (820b. E), from the herd of George Turner.

Nonpareil (925 E), from the herd of R. Merson.

Lady Lightfoot (824b. E), in her dam Lady Bird (820b. E).

W. R. Sanford, Orwell, Vt., in 1851, imported the bull—
 Prince Albert (278 E) in his dam Lily (233 E), and the cows July Flower
 (238 E) and Lily (263 E), from the herd of George Turner, and July
 Flower (806 E), in her dam July Flower (238 E).

George Vail, of Troy, New York [Cultivator, 1853, page 318], in 1853, imported the bull—

May Boy (249 E), from the herd of J. T. Davy; cow Truefit (1096 E), from the herd of Earl Leicester, and a heifer, all in ship Mary Carson, September, 1853.

E. G. Faile, West Farms, New York, in 1853 and 1856, imported the following :—

Exeter (198 E), from the herd of James Quartly.

Roanoke (506 E), from the herd of George Turner. (He afterwards sold the latter to J. R. McHenely, of California.)

Cows—Adah (489 E), from the herd of James Quartly.

Victoria (1108 E), from the herd of James Quartly.

Bowly (42 E), from the herd of George Turner.
